

INSTANT MONEY LETTER

Sometime ago, an elderly man had ten thousand copies of an unusual typewritten letter printed. He mailed these letters to a special group of prospects. The response he received from these letters averaged 70 replies to every 100 letters that he mailed out. In the envelope of every reply was a check for an amount that varied from $3.00 to over $175.00. This man amassed a fortune and has retired from business.

How would YOU like to have your mail box overflowing with letters each containing money each and every day of the week? The elderly man we mentioned DID! His UNIQUE and unusual letter could well be the answer to all money problems that you may have. USE IT!

This letter could well be worth several thousand dollars, but it can be yours for a mere $5.00... an extremely small sum when you consider the VALUE of the information contained in this powerful letter.
